THE STORY

As a marketing agency with a well-known reputation, Brandmuscle knows the importance of leaving a lasting impression and that starts internally with the look and feel of their office. We successfully helped Brandmuscle bring their office dreams to life by furnishing their new headquarters in The Blackstone Group's world-famous Willis Tower.

Complete with open seating options, numerous private offices, and an unbeatable view of downtown Chicago and Lake Michigan, Brandmuscle's new office is well suited for their employees and guests alike.
